Some ideas about song selection:

Prelude music begins about ten to fifteen minutes before the liturgy starts and may include two to four songs, including a selection to which the mothers of the bride and groom will walk down the aisle. Different songs are appropriate for different parts of the liturgy:

Processional Pachelbel's Canon in D
 Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring
 Bach's Sleeper's Awake

Separate Bridal Processional Trumpet Voluntary
 Trumpet Tune
 Lohengrin ("Here Comes The Bride")

Responsorial Psalms

"My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord."

"God is love and all who live in love live in God."

"Lord, you have the words of everlasting life."

"I will take the cup of life, I will call God's name all my days."

Presentation of Gifts Here I Am, Lord
 Abba Father
 Panis Angelicus
 The Irish Wedding Song
 Star Vicino (To Be Near You)
 One Hand One Heart

Communion The Wedding Song

 Table of Plenty
 One Bread One Body
 I Am The Bread of Life (Talbot)
 Amazing Grace

Tribute to the Holy Family Ave Maria
 Hail Mary, Gentle Woman
 Our Marian Prayer
 (theme from Shrine at Windsor)

Recessional Beethoven's Hymn Of Joy
 Trumpet Tune
 Theme from Masterpiece music
 Handel's Allegro Maestoso

This list is by no means inclusive. There are many other wonderful pieces, both instrumental and vocal, from which to select. One excellent listening resource is the library.

Additional musicians are available at extra cost:
